Continuation of OIC-302 of OLIVER RILEY HEMSLEY, On 05/29/98, Page 2

House Steward NELVIS had to clean up "the study" after LEWINSKY and the President had been there "doing something." HEMSLEY said that to the best of his knowledge, LEWINSKY and NELVIS did not have any kind of social or business association.

HEMSLEY heard the rumor that the President and [REDACTED] had an affair during the 1996 election campaign. HEMSLEY advised that for a period of time he was acting as a personal trainer for [REDACTED] and one day in the gym she was clearly upset by the fact that someone had written a story about an affair between she and the President in the STAR magazine. [REDACTED] made the comment that she couldn't believe people would lie about things like that. She denied that any of the story was true.

HEMSLEY said he heard about the Northwest Gate incident involving LEWINSKY, ELEANOR MONDALE and the President, primarily from Officer CHINERY. HEMSLEY said his recollection is that Officer HALL said something to someone else, which greatly upset LEWINSKY. HEMSLEY thought that LEWINSKY may have overheard HALL say that LEWINSKY, who was trying to get in to see the President, would have to "take a number." HEMSLEY remembers that CHINERY said he spoke to Sergeant WILLIAMS and BETTY CURRIE about the incident and CHINERY informed HEMSLEY what he learned from his inquiry. (Protective Function Privilege and Executive Privilege invoked)

HEMSLEY said he remembers two occasions when he saw LEWINSKY somewhere other than the White House. The first occasion was when he attended a function at the Washington Hilton on Connecticut Avenue. HEMSLEY was in charge of the Magnetometer Team for this event and noticed that LEWINSKY was present. The President was also supposed to make an appearance and HEMSLEY became concerned that she might try to get too close to the President. HEMSLEY, being aware of the rumors of the relationship between the President and LEWINSKY, decided that the uniformed and plainclothes Secret Service details should be notified. HEMSLEY told the supervisors of each unit about her presence and, as HEMSLEY remembers, it was necessary to tell them the reasons for his concerns since they apparently had not heard the rumors. HEMSLEY could not recall the name of these supervisors or the date of the event but did remember that it was after LEWINSKY had left the White House.

The second occasion was at an unrecalled outside event at the Pentagon (possibly a military anniversary) where the President was to make an appearance. HEMSLEY was in charge of the Magnetometer Team for this event and noticed that LEWINSKY
